

CONTENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM PROGRAMMING

4 ECTS (CREDITS)

Purpose of the subject:

To deepen student knowledge of internal user interface programming. To develop the ability to organise the CMS. To develop the ability to select the right tools for the development of the website and to integrate them properly into the website system. To develop knowledge of programming using programming frameworks and apply it to the development of CMS..

Study subject annotation:

To deepen the knowledge of internal user interface programming and to introduce the theory and practice of MVC programming architecture. To develop the skills to organise the CMS. The ability to select the right tools for website development and to integrate them properly into the website system. To develop programming skills in the application of programming frameworks as applied to the development of the CMS.

Evaluation form:

Exam