PROJECT: INTERNET TECHNOLOGIES

3 ECTS (CREDITS)

Purpose of the subject:

To develop students' abilities to identify the structure of a website project, to use the learned technologies for its implementation, to create a group website project with internal and external interface programming implemented in it.

Study subject annotation:

Students create a project plan for a website project on a chosen topic. Students use the web technologies they have learnt to develop a group website project with internal and external interface programming implemented.

Evaluation form:

Exam