

Job Title: Student Intern – Regulatory Reporting Department

Company Overview:

Join our dynamic team at Finora Bank, a leading financial institution committed to excellence in banking services and regulatory compliance. As part of our Regulatory Reporting Department, you will gain valuable hands-on experience in financial reporting, data analysis, and regulatory compliance while working alongside industry experts in a collaborative environment.

Job Description:

We are seeking a motivated and detail-oriented student intern to join our Regulatory Reporting Department. In this role, you will assist our team in preparing and submitting regulatory reports to regulatory authorities, ensuring compliance with financial regulations, and reporting requirements.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist in collecting, validating, and aggregating financial data from internal systems and departments.
- Support the preparation and submission of regulatory reports in accordance with regulatory deadlines.
- Conduct data analysis and reconciliation to ensure accuracy and integrity of reporting data.
- Assist in researching and interpreting regulatory guidelines and requirements.
- Collaborate with team members to identify process improvements and enhance efficiency in regulatory reporting processes.
- Participate in training sessions and workshops to expand your knowledge of regulatory reporting and financial regulations.

Qualifications:

- Currently enrolled as a student in a Bachelor's or Master's degree program in Finance, Accounting, Economics, or related field.
- Strong analytical skills with attention to detail and accuracy.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Excel and other Microsoft Office applications.

Benefits:

- Hands-on experience in regulatory reporting and financial compliance.
- Exposure to a wide range of banking products and services.
- Mentorship and guidance from experienced professionals in the industry.
- Flexible part-time schedule to accommodate your academic commitments.
- Opportunity for career growth and development within the organization.
